

Amy (Seaben) Younts
Class of 1991
Female Athlete Inductee

Amy (Seaben) Younts graduated from Holton High School in 1991. Seaben was an all-around athlete. She was a Varsity athlete for all four years in Volleyball, Basketball, and Softball. As a basketball player, Seaben was one of the hardest working players on the court. The sacrifice required to be a student athlete was one that she accepted and took pride in.

As a volleyball player, Seaben was a leader. Her positivity and encouragement lifted up other players. Seaben's skills earned her team's Most Valuable Player title. Her volleyball career continued to Muskegon Community College where Seaben continues to hold records for Serves Made, Service Ace, and Aces Per Game.

Seaben's senior year, the girls' varsity softball team made history with the most wins in a season. Seaben's leadership helped grow a team culture that encouraged team spirit and focused on improvement. She was a talented ball player both at bat and on the field.

Seaben graduated as salutatorian, Class President, and National Honor Society Vice President. She was voted Friendliest Personality and Class Jock her senior year. Seaben's dedication to athletics, academics, and kindness continue to make their impact on Holton Public Schools. Seaben serves Holton through coaching and as the Middle School Secretary.

Amy (Seaben) Younts epitomizes the hard work, dedication, and pride required of Red Devil Athletes. Seaben's success as an athlete and student make her an ideal inductee for the Holton Athletic Hall of Fame.
