

Roger Clark
Class of 1961
Male Athlete Inductee

Roger Clark graduated from Holton High School in 1961. As a four year Football, Basketball, and Baseball athlete Clark became a strong all-around athlete supporting his teams throughout his high school career. In football, Clark was a strong defensive player. Serving as captain of the football team, Clark was a team focused player helping to motivate and encourage his teammates to persevere.

As a basketball player, Clark was a stand out on both sides of the ball. His height helped make him a key scorer and rebounder. In baseball, Clark's athleticism helped him as a fielder and a consistent batter for the team. Throughout Clark's high school experience, he was a natural leader. Taking on opportunities including president of Student Council and National Honor Society, Clark's positive leadership was contagious. Graduating at the top of his class, Clark embodies the qualities required to be a successful student athlete. He left a legacy for athletes to emulate for years to come.

Clark's athletic success and leadership make him a worthy inductee into the Holton Athletics Hall of Fame.
